

Life Paths Promising Advocate Award

Life Paths Promising Advocate Award

We are offering four scholarships for participants who focus on advocacy for under-served or marginalized communities. Scholarships include conference registration and a $200 housing allowance for people who travel to Nashville from outside the area. We will pay scholarship winners a $200 housing reimbursement after a submission of receipt from a hotel, AirBNB, or other forms of housing is received.

Applicants must meet both of the following eligibility criteria: 1) Currently working at a non-profit organization serving people or communities who are historically underserved or have experienced violence, marginalization, or distress, and 2) Less than 7 years' professional experience in the field.

Scholarship winners are expected to attend the entire conference. The deadline to apply has been extended to November 14, 2022, 11:59 PM CST.

The following form is only to be considered for the award. People who wish to present should also submit their proposal through the conference submission portal.

Please fill out the following form to apply for the Life Paths Promising Advocate Award.

Title	<input type="text" value="Dr."/> ▾
First/Given Name *	<input type="text"/>
Last/Family Name *	<input type="text"/>
Organization *	<input type="text"/>
Email *	<input type="text"/>

Sample Application for Life Paths Promising Advocate Award

Eligibility Confirmation: Less than 2 years
How many years have you been in the field? * 2-3 years
 4-7 years

To be eligible for this award, applicants must have less than 7 years experience in the field.

Letter of Application: Please provide a 2-3 page letter that describes you, your current professional status, and how attendance at ResilienceCon will promote your professional goals. Additionally, please identify which marginalized or underserved community or communities that your work focuses on.

Upload Your Letter of Application *

Upload

Allowed Upload Formats: .doc, .docx, or .pdf

Please direct any questions you may have to Liz Taylor, lifepaths@lifepathsresearch.org

SUBMIT FORM